

Models of Older Adult Ministry

An Afternoon Zoom Conference

Monday, September 21, 2020, 1:30 – 4:30pm

In this panel discussion for congregational leaders, clergy, and regional ministers in metropolitan Southern California, leaders of three older adult ministries in congregational settings share their varying approaches, lessons learned, and resources to better address the spiritual needs of aging congregants.

Panelists

Rev. Todd Leonard, Senior Pastor, Glendale City Church in Glendale, CA, is co-founder of the congregation's Seniors Academy.

Rev. Steve Herder, M.Div., Associate Pastor at Ascension Lutheran Church in Thousand Oaks, leads the congregation's comprehensive Senior Adult Ministries (SAM) Team, which both engages and serves nearly 380 older adult members.

Cindy Wright, MA, serves as the Minister of Care and Mature Adults at Solana Beach Presbyterian Church, a position she's enjoyed for the past 31 years. She finds great joy in loving and serving God's oldest children in the church and community.

Moderator: Dr. Cordula Dick-Muehlke, Ph.D. is a consultant in aging and dementia and licensed psychologist who co-directs the Spirituality and Aging Certificate Program sponsored by New Theological Seminary of the West.
